Golkowski - Karkut Wedding - Leap Year Party - Personal and Notes.
The German Lutheran church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon when at 4 o'clock Louise Marie Karkut was united in marriage with Leonard Michael Golkowski. Rev. F. W. Werth performed the ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the altar which was decorated with wild flowers and palms and ferns, arranged by Reuter. The service was the Lutheran double ring service.
The bride was very attractive in a gown of white Georgette crepe draped over white mouseline with trimmings, her long veil of tulle was arranged in modern fashion and caught up with white mouseline with trimmings. She carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor was Miss Elese Sabrowski, who was dressed in white silk and carried white carnations. The groom was attended by Henry Follenius.
The bride party entered the church to the strains of the hymn "The Bride and Groom," played by Miss Anna E. Pukalski. When the altar was reached the full choir directed by the organist sang "The Wedding Song." During the ceremony the organist played "Oh Promise Me" and "MacDonald's To a Wild Rose." Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" from a "Midsummer Night's Dream" being used for a recessional.
The bride presented her maid with a gold bracelet and the groom gave his best man a scarf pin.
Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church hall. The hall was tastefully decorated with laurel and ferns, the color scheme being pink and green. The bride's health was drank and after music by the choir the guests sat down to dinner, the following menu being served: Cold roast chicken, mashed potatoes, string beans, pickles, bread and rolls, native strawberry ice cream, cake and coffee. A small table being arranged at the head of the hall for the bride party.
During the evening dancing was enjoyed, the music being furnished by Charles Nates. At midnight a light luncheon was served. Amid showers of confetti the young couple started on their wedding trip, which will include points of interest in New York and New Jersey. The bride wore a traveling dress of lavender silk with white coat and hat. The bride received many beautiful gifts, including many of silver, cut glass, linen and furniture and a number of gold pieces and a substantial check from her father.
The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Karkut of Fourteenth street and has been employed at the Ponemah mills. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Golkowski of Pratt street and is a weaver for the J. B. Martin Co. Both are very popular among their friends and start married life under happy circumstances with the best wishes for the future. They will reside with the bride's parents and be at home after Aug. 1 at 39 Fourteenth street. Guests were present from New Jersey.

CROPS ARE LOOKING BETTER Week of Sunshine Will Greatly Improve Conditions—Calling of Militia to Colors Increases Farm Problem—Improvement League Directors to Meet With E. P. Barnes.

Crops are looking better and a week's sunshine will greatly improve conditions in the county, said County Agent F. C. Warner of the New London County Improvement League on Sunday night. For one or two months or six weeks, crops about the county in general have had a hard time and in some instances whole fields of corn and potatoes have been drowned out.
It has been a good year for hay, but the heavy rains have laid the crop low and it is impossible to harvest it. Alfalfa has suffered the same way. Saturday's warm sunshine did a world of good, but Sunday's downpour undid it again and put the crops right back.
Potatoes are doing better than might be supposed, but beans are in bad shape and corn is at a stand still. The effect of the rain is quite noticeable on alfalfa as the lower parts have already started to rot. Apples in some orchards are doing quite well, and the peach crop may survive the struggle for existence.

The calling of the state militia to the colors for service in Mexico has added to the already big farm help problem. Farmers for some time have been finding it more and more difficult to keep their help and there is a possibility of there not being men enough to harvest the crops in the fall. They do not survive the rains and cold weather.

MISS WATSON ENTERTAINED AT PAUTPAUG BUNGALOW.
Members of Parent-Teachers' Association of Sattenstall School Were the Guests.
On Wednesday, Miss Viola Watson, nurse in the public schools of New London, entertained at her bungalow, on Pautpaug Hill. The party consisted of a number of the members of the Parent-Teachers' association of Sattenstall school.
The advisory board of mothers, which has done much to help Miss Watson in her work amongst the poor children, was represented by Mrs. Archer, Mrs. Edgcomb, and Mrs. Snow.
The day was spent in talking and fishing and the lucky fisherman obtained a sufficient number of fat perch to furnish the supper table.
Even the rain did not dampen the spirits of the party, and all voted the day a success.

MR. MITCHELL'S CATCH OF FIFTY-FOUR SALMON, TO JUNE 21 However, Season Is Backward on the Restigouche, From Several Causes.
The salmon fishing on the Restigouche opens slow this season. Some of the fishermen attribute the absence of the salmon in the river to the presence of an unusual number of porpoises in the Bay of Chaleur, and others to the backward season might be the cause of it.
Mr. A. Mitchell, Sr., writing a Norwich friend from Runnymede Lodge, on the Restigouche, on June 21st, said:
One day last week, eleven rods at the Restigouche Salmon club came in clean, and six other rods—including our own, making 17 fishermen all told who had not taken a single fish that day. Apart from that, which was the poorest showing as a record for the middle of June, we had a number of blank days.
But more recently, more fish have begun to appear in the river, and the prospects look better from now on.
I have just looked over our record and find up to last evening our party has killed all told, since May 21st, fifty-four salmon, which averaged as follows: 25, 24, 19, 17, 23, 24, 31, 25, 31, 17, 8, 21, 25, 24, 17, 20, 21, 24, 31, 17, 13, 24, 25, 17, 27, 19, 18, 31, 20, 12, 24, 12, 12, 23, 24, 19, 19, 31, 25, 9, 24, 20, 20, 18, 35, 21, 16, 16, 11, 11, 21, 13. Total catch, 1,974 pounds, an average of about 26 pounds.
Mr. Mitchell expects to be back in Norwich about July 5.

STRAWBERRY CROPS UNFAVORABLE.
The rainy weather is spoiling the strawberry crop. A few more days of even slightly rainy weather will mean a loss of the crop. The season between two and three weeks later than usual, but the berries as a general thing are not as good flavor, needing some time to ripen. They are, however, distinctly better than last year's, and a considerable portion of the crop is already rotting on the plants.
